

Contemporary socioeconomic issues that impact on business

Across

6. Can you recall an incurable disease transferred by means of body fluids.
8. How would you perceive the state of living where people have little or no money to supply their basic needs.
9. Can you explain what is happening when there is an extreme form of aggression using physical force to cause injury.
10. What is the function of giving everyone opportunities without discriminating on the basis of age, race, gender, sexual orientation, disabilities or HIV status

Down

1. Deposit-taking business promising high interest returns to convince people to place money on the scheme

2. Categorize the collective refusal of employees to work because of an issue in the workplace to force the employer to give in to demands
3. What conclusion can you draw from the degree to which people do not have the same opportunities and are treated differently because of their social status
4. How would you classify the type of an industrial action whereby employees decrease their working speed and so force the employer to give in to demands usually related to salary increase.
5. Imagine your friends making copies of products made without permission of the original creator.
7. What is a game of chances by which a person risks losing or gaining money or other possessions.