

Content and Structure of the Health Record

Across

2. Data documents patient's demographic, financial, consent, and authorizations status
 5. these notes serve to justify further acute care treatment in the facility
 14. focuses on accreditation of managed care organizations
 18. government reimbursement program standards
 19. long term care plan format based on mds
 21. this report describes the surgical procedures performed on a patient
 22. consent where a patient voluntarily submits to treatment
 23. this report documents the clinical opinion of a physician other than the primary or attending

24. this sets professional values, principles, and guidelines

Down

1. Review the record for missing documentation
 3. Contains elements of both paper and electronic records
 4. Medicare recognized Accreditation Organization
 6. the study of the statistical characteristics of human populations
 7. guidelines which govern the practice of employees within a specific organization
 8. another name for referral form
 9. reference points against which structures, processes, or outcomes can be measured

10. summary of the patient's problems with a detailed plan for interventions
 11. Data documents patient's medical condition, diagnosis, and procedures
 12. Signatures are attached via an _____ process in electronic systems
 13. The consent a patient gives after an explanation and an opportunity to ask questions
 15. international accrediting organization
 16. this document indicates current and past medical conditions
 17. requires healthcare facilities to provide written information on the patient's right to execute advance directives
 20. questions for practitioners generated from record reviews