

Continental Drift Vocab

Across

- 1. A map that shows the geography of an area (altitude depressions Hachures) 8. The line where a transform boundary is
10. A landform formed at a divergent boundary by the pulling apart of plates
11. The lines that tell the altitude of and area on a topographic map
12. A place where the mantle is plumed upwards usually creating a volcanic area

13. A landform that is created near subduction zones where volcanoes are

14. A view of the earth from pictures from satellites

Down

- 2. A landform created where divergent ocean plates are 3. A place where two plates collide and one goes under the other
4. The theory that the continents are moving around

5. The theory that the earth has moving plates that are changing

6. The sea floor getting bigger because of new rock forming at faults

7. A landform created by a subduction zone under the water

9. Friction force Divergent force and Convergent Force