

Continuous Observation

Across

2. Team members (can be RN, PCA, non-clinical team members/volunteers) that have been trained and has demonstrated competence in working with suicidal patients and performing 1:1 continuous observation.
7. Indications for Continuous Observations include but are not limited to...
8. Indications for Continuous Observations include but are not limited to...
9. 1:1 in-person continuous observation is required for patients that have screened _____ for suicide.
10. What plan should be established between the RN and continuous observers so that immediate assistance can be summoned when necessary?

Down

1. An employed IU Health team member with specialized training for continuous observation (previously known as a sitter or patient monitor)
3. Visualization of a patient at all times with the ability to immediately intervene without delay if necessary by a qualified team member.
4. The continuous observer assists with _____ and ambulation under the direction of an RN (if a clinical team member with demonstrated competency).
5. Who documents continuous observation initiation, ongoing, and documentation?
6. The continuous observer must have the ability to sit for _____ of time while remaining awake, alert, and observant.