

Name: _____

Date: _____

Contract Law

Across

4. some types of contracts must be in ____ to be enforceable
 6. the legal ability to enter into a contract
 8. the body of laws governing commercial transactions in the U.S.
 10. the inducement, price, or promise that causes a person to enter into a contract and forms the basis for the parties' exchange
 12. exaggerated "sales talk"
 13. to cancel a contract

14. cancellation of the offer

16. the party in contract negotiations who MAKES the first offer

Down

1. the contract must be for a lawful purpose
 2. both parties must agree to the terms
 3. A contract in which one party agrees not to compete with another in a stated type of business

5. responding to the offer a certain way

7. a party makes a ____ when it responds to an offer with a new and different proposal

9. the party who RECEIVES the first offer

11. a court will award money or other relief to a party injured by a breach of contract

15. when a person or company proposes a deal

Word Bank

Offeree

rescind

Capacity

Noncompete Agreement

Offerer

Writing

Consideration

Consent

Legality

Remedies

Puffery

Offer

Counteroffer

Revocation

Uniform Commercial Code

Acceptance