

Contract terms

Across

2. Let the buyer beware
5. To freely give permission or agree to the terms of the contract
7. A contract which contains the size essential elements hence is enforceable by law
8. An agreement giving rights and obligations to those involved, which is enforceable by law
10. A state of being legally competent
11. A formal offer to supply or buy goods or services at a stated cost or rate. The most desirable offer wins

Down

1. A contract where at least one of the size elements is missing and hence cannot be upheld by the law
3. Some sort of payment in exchange for a good or service
4. Assurance that a certain standard will be met
6. High standards of excellence
9. A sale where buyers bid until the highest price is reached