

Name: _____

Date: _____

Contracts

Across

5. one party makes a promise to the other that the other party can accept only by doing something specific

7. when one or more parties has not fulfilled its obligations under the contract

9. when a person or company proposes a deal

10. a legal action in which to avoid injustice, the court awards damages as if a contract had existed, although one did not

11. some types of contracts must be in writing to be enforceable

13. a court will award money or other relief to a party injured by a breach of contract

14. the parties must be adults of sound mind

15. bargaining that leads to an exchange between the parties

16. the plaintiff gets "as much as he deserved" and refers to the actual value services rendered

Down

1. when all parties to the contract have filled their obligations under the contract

2. legally enforceable agreement

3. both parties make a promise (to do something) for each other

4. a doctrine in which a court may enforce a promise made by the defendant even when there is no contract

6. responding to the offer a certain way

8. the contract must be for a lawful purpose

12. occurs when the main obligations of a contract end