

Name: _____

Date: _____

Core Concepts

Across

4. is the scientific study of ancient cultures through the examination of artifacts and other evidence

5. referest the mix of human and nonhuman features at a given location

10. is information about an event that does not come from a person who experienced an event

11. is an object made by a human being, such as a tool or weapon

12. is the time before humans invented writing

13. is an area with at least one unifying feature such as climate, landscape, population, and history

14. is information that comes directly from a person who experinced an event

Down

1. describes a place's exact position on Earth in terms of longitude and latitude

2. a list of events in order in which they occurred

3. the location of a place relative to another place, is another way to describe location

6. people who study events in the past

7. is a line marked off with a series of events and dates

8. is an unfair preference for or dislike of something

9. is a length of time singled out because of a specific event or development that happened during that time