

Creamy Crossword Pot

Across

5. A territory home to more than one group of people
 7. When differing cultural elements come into contact
 10. A group of people with shared past but no defined territory
 13. Area where people with shared past and defined territory go together
 14. Hawaii's annexation in 1898 is an example of...
 17. A group of people spread out in multiple territories
 21. Boundaries drawn based on natural landforms
 22. A boundary that no longer functions
 23. The separation between territories
 24. an attempt by people to influence, or control people of a nation or state

25. When a poor country is in need, a rich country will provide money in exchange for resources, labor, land, etc

Down

1. Christopher Columbus
 2. A state who's economic and political system has fallen apart
 3. A defined group of people with a shared past and usually a connection to land
 4. Power moving from Central to Regional governments
 6. When a group of people chooses their own state and government
 8. Boundaries drawn with straight lines
 9. Lines drawn throughout a state to give smaller regions power

11. geographic feature which an armed force is forced to pass
 12. a state with an extremely low economy and political system causing it to become out of control
 15. Sections of territory that have some independence
 16. A politically organized territory
 18. power and "reign"
 19. The dividing of Africa between European states
 20. An unlawful use of violence for political reasons