

Credit Cards

Across

7. the criminals who buy, sell, steal or conspire to hijack another person's credit or debit card account information.
11. s a service provided by most credit card and charge card issuers
13. a form that must be filled out by bank customers who find bogus or incorrect debits in their accounts
14. a financial institution whose main purpose is to take in deposits and fund mortgages
15. The monthly Federal Reserve G.19 report considers various types of consumer debt
16. a current medium of exchange in the form of coins and banknotes; coins and banknotes collectively

18. he reporting of settlement amounts owed by one member to another
20. an entry recording an amount owed, listed on the left-hand side or column of an account.

Down

1. a manual credit card impression machine that creates multiple receipts by sliding a handle to record the raised numbers on the front of a credit card onto carbon-paper packet copies
2. have no debt on your credit card
3. an even distribution of weight enabling someone or something to remain upright and steady
4. the credit card industry's term for acquiring consumers and businesses as credit card customers. SITE
5. Lending Agency that is owing money

6. fee charged by a credit card company each year for use of a credit card
8. account is a bank account equally shared by two or more individuals
9. a small rectangular piece of plastic issued by a bank, containing personal data in a machine-readable form and used chiefly to obtain cash or credit
10. the use of personal information to commit fraud
12. lending of money, especially at exorbitant interest rates
17. set of specifications developed by Europay
19. the name of the data analytics company