

Credit Terminology Quiz

Across

5. This section on your credit report includes all parties who have accessed your account within the past two years.

9. Bankruptcy is the only type that appears in this section of your credit report.

10. Paying your bills on time is an example of a way to maintain a _____ credit history.

11. Borrowing on the promise to pay it back at a later date.

13. Keeps records of a consumer's credit transactions.

14. A record of transactions involving the use of credit

15. This section of your credit report includes name, address, etc.

16. This section of your credit report includes details about how you've paid your credit accounts.

Down

1. The individual who received the loan

2. Taking out a small loan and making the payments on time is a good way to _____ your credit history.

3. This section of your credit report includes information about all your different credit accounts.

4. Money that is owed to a lender

6. Bouncing checks is an example of a way of developing a _____ credit history.

7. A record of a consumer's credit history

8. The person or organization who provides an individual with a loan

12. A number that evaluates your creditworthiness.