

Name: _____

Date: _____

Credit cards

Across

1. a loan from credit card using ATM or bank withdraw
 9. a current medium of exchange using coins or banknotes
 10. A program with a bank or credit card provider that automatically takes money from an account.
 12. advertising students at college
 14. the ability to buy stuff as a loan and the bank has to trust you'll pay them back
 16. when the lend amount can be changed
 17. transferred money between accounts using an electronic machine

18. The lending agency that is owed money

19. remaining amount owed after payed loan
 20. The amount charged or fee for use of a credit card product for a calendar year.

Down

2. when somebody doesnt pay their loan
 3. A check which is used to receive a cash loan against the available credit on a credit card.
 4. A go-to rate is an interest rate put on credit cards after the beginning period, sometime known as the teaser period.

5. small rectangular piece of plastic issued by bank with money on it

6. Risk-based pricing is a form of interest rate that is decided by an individuals credit score and history of repayment.
 7. record of every transaction
 8. way to securely transport credit card
 11. Any financial entity that issues credit cards to card holders.
 13. daily reference rate
 15. automated teller machine