

Name: _____

Date: _____

Crime and Deviance Key Words

Across

3. There is a _____ between the goals in society and people's abilities to achieve them.
7. This theory claims that that society creates rules and anyone who acts out of these rules is labelled deviant.
8. Behaviour which does not conform to society's rules and norms
9. Who claimed crime has positive functions for society?
10. _____ socialisation can cause crime, according to Functionalists

Down

1. Deviant acts may be functional as a form of pressure release (2 words, no spaces)
2. These are rules that are taken for granted and guide aspects of social life
4. When horrific crimes have been committed, the entire community comes together in shared outrage (2 words, no spaces)
5. Labelling can lead to a self-fulfilling _____ where they continue to behave this way.
6. This theory claims that juvenile delinquency is a group phenomenon