

Name: _____

Date: _____

Criminal Law

Across

3. Officers must have _____ before stopping or detaining someone

5. crime punishable by confinement for more than a year in state prison

6. Any penalty provided by law and imposed by a court is called a punishment

7. the use of the force that appears necessary to the victim to prevent death or other serious injuries

8. Offense to society

9. a less serious crime is called a

10. An accused person may agree to plead guilty to a less serious crime in exchange for having a more serious charge dropped

Down

1. Disprove, justify, or excuse the alleged crime

2. crime committed in the business world

4. a legal position taken by an accused to defeat the charges against him or her