

Criminal Law

Across

2. one way in which crime affects all of us
 4. collection of criminal statutes adopted by most states to make their enforcement consistent
 6. occurs when someone copies or imitates an item without authorization and passes the item off as genuine
 9. a crime in which a person falsely makes or alters a writing, document, or piece of art
 10. Arson, vandalism and shoplifting are examples of crimes against this

11. electronically breaking into or disrupting computer systems
 12. occurs when someone makes an investment decision based on information that is not available to the general public
 13. any unlawful entry into a building with intent to commit any crime

Down

1. the fraudulent appropriation to one's own use of property lawfully in their possession

3. a defense for criminal conduct in which special circumstances existed and the person was acting in defense of themselves or others
 5. a preliminary crime that involves an agreement between 2 or more persons to commit a crime
 7. a preliminary crime that involves the asking, commanding, urging, or advising of another to commit the crime
 8. term typically used to describe theft; to obtain the property of another without their consent