

Criminal and Civil Law

Across

- 2. If a police officer must use force and eventually shoot when apprehending a criminal, this is an example of ____
- 7. Shoplifting, drinking alcohol in a public place and possession of narcotics are all examples of ____
- 8. Crimes such as murder and manslaughter are ____
- 9. Before a death can be determined as either manslaughter or murder, it is described as a ____

10. Standard of proof in a criminal case

Down

- 1. If a group of people plan to murder someone, however only 1 person commits the murder, this person is described as the ____
- 3. Summary offences are seen in the ____
- 4. Age of criminal responsibility
- 5. Indictable offences are seen in ____
- 6. The person who has the burden of proving beyond reasonable doubt that an offender committed the crime is the ____