

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Criminal and Civil Law

Across

- 3. engaging in activity even though it is dangerous
- 5. use of force necessary to prevent death of self or family
- 9. agreeing to lesser crime in exchange for dropping more serious charge
- 16. another word for blackmail
- 17. accepting and using someone else's property as your own
- 19. responsibility to do or not do something
- 20. breaking into someone's home or car and taking items
- 22. freedom from prosecution even when one has committed crime
- 23. crime punishable by confinement for more than a year
- 24. occurs when a person is intentionally shoved, hit, or pushed

- 27. crime punishable by confinement for less than one year

- 28. legal position taken by an accused to defeat charges

- 30. held criminally responsible for people or situations

- 32. occurs when a person is held against their will without charges

- 33. false statement that injures a person's reputation

Down

- 1. misrepresenting facts

- 2. element of a tort

- 4. wrongful taking of money or personal property

- 6. offenses committed in the business world

- 7. statements made by witnesses under oath

- 8. judgment in a civil case

- 10. hindering the administration of justice

- 11. one who receives stolen property

- 12. reasonable ground for belief of criminal act

- 13. willful and illegal burning or exploding a building

- 14. taking property from someone against their will

- 15. occurs when on person intentionally puts someone in fear of harm

- 18. offense against a person

- 21. falsely making or altering writing

- 25. unlawfully offering or giving anything of value to influence

- 26. a court order for a person to do or not do an act

- 29. written words that damage a person's reputation

- 31. Offense against society