

Crispy Crossword

Across

2. something that is measured in newtons. It is usually a push, pull or a twist.
5. something that can move but isn't free.
7. you use rocket to get to it.
9. something that is free and can go where ever it wants.
10. it keeps you on earth instead of floating away.

Down

1. something that stays in one shape and doesn't move around.
3. this is caused by two surfaces trying to or sliding across of eachother.
4. it is what a force is measured in.
6. a different word to describe the weight of something.
8. there are lots of different types of it such of kinetic, gavitational, chemical, nuclear and so on.