

Critical Thinking Review

Across

6. Time, space, God, cause, and reality.

9. The claim that we do not have knowledge.

10. The only knowledge that we have comes from our senses.

12. "The unexamined life is not worth living"

13. Misinterpreting an opponent's argument in a way that makes it easier to attack or condemn.

14. All knowledge is relative to either the person, culture, or time period.

15. All knowledge is based solely on reason.

16. Art and beauty.

Down

1. "I think therefore I am"

2. The claim that knowledge is neither already in the mind nor passively received from experience but that the mind constructs knowledge out of the materials of experience.

3. Insisting that a situation will lead to a chain of events that have an exaggerated outcome.

4. Choosing evidence that supports your argument while ignoring evidence against it.

5. Tells the story of enlightenment and reluctance to be enlightened.

7. Good and bad.

8. Questions about knowledge.

11. Philosopher who created constructivism.