

Name: _____

Date: _____

Crossword #14

Across

3. Information that is either biased or misleading
 6. Withdraw from commercial or social relations as a punishment or protest; a ban from groups or organizations
 8. A storage of weapons and military equipment
 11. A professional soldier hired to serve the enemy in their army
 13. Someone killed or injured in war or an accident
 14. An introduction or a preparational/preliminary statement
 17. A tax or duty to pay on a specific class of exports
 18. Enlist someone into the armed forces, or someone new to the armed forces

19. A written request, usually signed by a lot of people, addressed to an authority for a particular cause; make or present such requests
 21. Abandon someone or something in a disloyal or treacherous manner
 22. A ship owned by a government officer that is authorized for war, including capturing enemy trading goods
 23. A firm decision or quality
 24. A surprise attack from a concealed position, or to attack in said position

Down

1. An increase in prices and fall in the value of purchased money; the act of being inflated or inflating something
 2. A person who is of the belief violence is unjustified, or to hold those ideals

4. A place that is sealed off to prevent goods or people from leaving or entering, or the act or means of doing so
 5. Irregular warfare that includes ambushes, raids, petty warfare, and other irregular tactics used by a military
 7. Someone who remains loyal to the government, especially during a revolt
 9. Revoke something; the act of revoking
 10. Income
 12. Someone who supports their country and will defend it against enemies
 15. A military force, used to supplement a regular army in emergencies
 16. Give formal consent to or sign
 20. An American soldier, known to be ready at a "minute's" notice