

Crossword Module 1.1

Across

3. The condition in which the body's internal environment remains relatively constant within physiological limits
5. Subjective changes in body function that are not apparent to an observer (patient or client describes these)
7. Nearer to the midline or midsagittal plane
8. Synthetic (building up) biochemical reactions within an organism
9. Further from the attachment of limb to the trunk

10. Nearer to the attachment of a limb to the trunk

11. Decompositions (breaking down) biochemical reactions within an organism

13. Component of a feedback system, that determines the point at which a controlled condition is maintained

14. An illness characterised by a recognizable set of signs and symptoms

Down

1. The formation of new chemical bonds or the breaking of old chemical bonds between atoms

2. The formation of new cells for growth, repair or replacement, the production of a new individual

4. Any stress that changes a controlled condition, any change in the internal or external environment that excites a sensory receptor

6. An association of organs that have a common function

12. A total living form; one individual