

Crossword - Chapter 12 Week 1

Across

3. The cause of a disorder
 7. The process by which the medical office submits a claim to the insurance company, which then pays the provider for services rendered.
 8. The initial assessment and treatment of the disease, condition or injury
 11. Instructions or guides for assigning classifications, defining category content, or using subdivision codes.

12. An industry journal that provides insight into the coding complex medical cases.

Down

1. Information about a patient's diagnosis or diagnoses that has been extracted from the medical documentation
 2. A growth of uncontrolled, abnormal tissue; a tumor
 4. An indication of the existence, reality, or presence of something, especially an illness

5. A summary of the diagnostic statement and/or procedures and services performed.
 6. A term used in the diagnosis of a condition that can be imminently threatening.
 9. A disease that manifests over a long period because medical treatment has not resolved it.
 10. Every meeting between a patient and a healthcare provider.