

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Crossword for Science

Across

4. What is the biggest bone in you arm?
7. What do you need the most of for your body?
8. What do you call something that connects a bone to a muscle together?
10. Any Place where 2 or more bones come together is called what?
11. What kind of acid is in your stomach?
14. What is your largest organ?
15. The ends of your bones are covered covered with a smooth, slippery, thick layer of tissue called what?
16. What is the bottom layer of your skin?

17. What protect the gastric acid from burning though your stomach?
18. Muscles you can move are what?
19. What do you use to grind down food with?
21. What kind of joint on the top of your arm?
22. The living bones surface is covered with a tough, tight fitting membrane called what?
25. What is the middle layer of your skin?
26. How many functions does your skin have?

Down

1. What are your main source of energy for your body?

2. How many parts are there connected to the humerus?
3. All of your bones make what?
5. Muscles you can't move are what?
6. What produces spit?
9. What makes a wave like motion in your esophagus?
12. What is the bone on the top of your arm?
13. What is the muscle that is on the top of you arm?
20. What is the top layer of your skin?
23. What is the bone on the bottom of your arm?
24. What is the bone that is at the bottom of your arm?