

Cujo Vocabulary

Across

4. situated far from the main centers of population; distant.

5. having a thick, sticky consistency between solid and liquid; having a high viscosity.

8. of an orange-brown or yellowish-brown color.

11. a slender threadlike object or fiber, especially one found in animal or plant structures.

13. lacking in vigor or vitality; slack or slow: a languid manner.

14. a sense of disgust and loathing.

15. faint from extreme emotion.

Down

1. not moving; motionless.

2. a person or thing that is likely to cause harm; a threat or danger.

3. Coldly determined; hard.

6. a picture, description, or imitation of a person or thing in which certain striking characteristics are exaggerated in order to create a comic or grotesque effect.

7. done without confidence; hesitant.

9. (especially of the eyes) full of rheum; watery.

10. Affected with Rabies.

12. moving with a slow, shuffling, awkward gait.