

Culture Revision

Across

2. How a person is expected to behave in relation to their social position in society.
 4. Beliefs that underpin rules of behaviour.
 8. Beliefs that underpin rules of behaviour.
 10. Is a lifelong process of learning and developing an acceptable way to behave from our surroundings
 11. How we see ourselves and how portray ourselves to others

Down

1. What we learn from subjects on the school curriculum such as history, maths etc

3. Socially acceptable behaviour and characteristics appropriate to how males are expected to behave in our society
 5. The rewards and punishments used to socialise individuals. They can be positive or negative.
 6. Copying the behaviour of others
 7. Status which is fixed and determined at birth.
 9. Social rules of behaviour that relate to specific social situations and govern how we are supposed to behave.