

Name: _____

Date: _____

Culture

Across

5. disorientation that people experience when facing a culture fundamentally different from their own
 8. values that together form a larger whole
 11. ideas of what is desirable in life
 14. a people's ideal values and norms
 15. to follow one value means to come into conflict with another
 16. movements of the body used to communicate with others
 17. norms that are taken more seriously and are essential to our core values
 19. society made up of many different groups

Down

1. strictly enforced norms
 2. use of one's culture as a yardstick for judging the ways of other individuals or societies, generally leading to a negative evaluation of their values, norms, and behaviors
 3. a group whose values and norms place them at odds with the dominant culture
 4. trying to understand a culture in its own terms
 6. a value, norm, or other cultural trait that is found in every group
 7. values that are central to a group, those around which a group builds a common identity
 9. a world withing a larger world of the dominant culture
 10. reactions people receive for following or breaking norms
 12. norm so strongly ingrained that even the thought of its violation is greeted with revulsion
 13. norms and values that people actually follow
 18. something to which people attach meaning and that they use to communicate with one another
 20. symbols that can be combined in an infinite number of ways and can represent not only objects but also abstract thought