Name: _____ Date: _____

Cybersecurity Awareness

Across

3. A digital form of social engineering to deceive individuals into providing sensitive information

6. A self-replicating, self-propagating, self-contained program that uses networking mechanisms to spread itself

8. A collection of computers compromised by malicious code and controlled across a network

10. Software that tracks keystrokes

11. A string of characters used to authenticate a user

12. Software that compromises the operation of a system by performing an unauthorized function

14. The unauthorized transfer of information from a network

Down

1. An unauthorized act of bypassing the security mechanisms of a network

2. The process of verifying the identity of a user

4. An unauthorized user who attempts to access an information system

5. Data in its encrypted form

7. Device or program that limits network traffic

9. Indiscriminately sent unsolicited bulk messages

13. A form of malicious software that piggybacks onto legitimate application code in order to spread and reproduce itself