

DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

Across

- 1. A tonically contracted sphincter that keeps pancreatic fluid and bile from entering the small intestine
- 5. Swallowed food enters here
- 6. is the chemical and mechanical breakdown of foods into smaller units that can be taken across the intestinal epithelium into the body.
- 11. When you hold your urine, it fills
- 15. The soupy mixture of food and secretions
- 18. It's red and it flows into your veins
- 19. There is another one, with the same name, but bigger

- 20. the movement of substances from the lumen of the GI tract to the extracellular fluid

Down

- 2. synonymous of mandible
- 3. Length of the digestive system from mouth to anus
- 4. The digestive system begins with it
- 7. The portion of the GI tract running from the stomach to the anus
- 8. Releases small amounts of chyme
- 9. It's a part of the small intestine that starts with D
- 10. It does consume when you drink too much alcohol

- 12. An opening that permits to any waste to leave the body
- 13. a narrow tube that travels through the thorax to the abdomen
- 14. terminal section of the large intestine
- 16. Food enters here, in here you have your teeth and tongue and you use it to speak
- 17. The first part of large intestine

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------------|-------------------|------------|---------------|
| ANUS | GUT | CHYME | ORAL CAVITY |
| DUODENUM | BLADDER | ESOPHAGUS | DIGESTION |
| SMALL INTESTINE | GI TRACT | COLON | MOUTH |
| LIVER | 450 centimeters | ABSORPTION | JAWBONE |
| RECTUM | SPHINCTER OF ODDI | BLOOD | PYLORIC VALVE |