

Daily life in the Colonies

Across

1. A worker who makes luxury goods using a popular metal.
3. Crops don't grow depending on the _____
5. A person that works under a master to train for a certain job
9. A person who makes a living by selling a specific item such as tea to other countries
12. A thing that the New England Economy depended on. Anglers and whalers depended on these too
14. To trade one good for another
15. A person who works in a place that grinds up wheat by using a big propeller usually powered by water.

16. A person that makes goods like furniture most likely out of wood

18. A person that tends animals and was most of the Massachusetts bay colonies economy

19. When preachers inspired people to get their own connection with god and they did not need a minister to do it

20. A trade that the Colonies, Africa, and England took part in and they traded goods to each other

Down

2. A part of a country that puts states together depending on where they are

4. A country that exports more than they import to make more money

6. A middle class person that has a building where they sell things

7. A person who catches fish then sells them for a living

8. A worker who makes weapons and armor to sell to people

10. What people did to get lamp oil and wax

11. The job of delivering is done by _____.

13. A big part of the New England Economy that was used to build ships for fishing

17. An area that ships come and go