

Name: _____

Date: _____

Deep Tissue Crossword

Across

5. This kind of pain originates from damage to the nervous system...

6. Pain that is sudden and usually associated with injury or trauma...

10. An involuntary motor response, or muscle contraction, is...

11. This kind of pain originates from injuries and tissue damage...

13. An evaluation of something that helps form professional judgments is...

15. The manner in which a person moves on foot is...

16. Pain that may follow acute pain and occurs after inflammatory stage has subsided...

17. The maximum amount of pain an individual will tolerate or endure before outwardly responding to it...

18. This theory of pain defines pain as a response determined by how the brain interprets incoming information...

19. A nongliding massage technique...

Down

1. The use of massage techniques that also address the needs of athletes is...

2. The position of the body over a base of support is referred to as...

3. Pain perception is also referred to as...

4. The point at which a stimulus is perceived as painful...

7. He proposed the the specificity theory of pain...

8. The ability of neurons to change their structure, function and chemical profile...

9. Delayed Onset Muscle Soreness is...

12. This kind of pain has lasted for longer than 3 months...

14. Melzack and Wall proposed this theory of pain...