

Definitions

Across

2. confined space, An area that becomes unsafe to enter due to insufficient access to oxygen when exposed to toxic or flammable

4. hot work, Any work that produces a spark or heats up the

6. Tank, An enclosed space on ship or in

7. Entrant, Someone who enters a tank to perform

8. Supervisor, Delivers a work-specific brief at the tank before the

9. tank watch, Trained person assigned to read and communicate tank posting requirements and stand guard outside a tank

12. competent person, Person who tests atmosphere in

Down

1. competent person, Trained by a marine chemist to evaluate confined spaces for

3. controlled space, A space where entry requirements, restrictions, and work limitations are

5. tank watch brief, Presentation to the entrants by the tank watch at the tank before they enter the

10. entry, When any part of your body crosses the plane of entrance to the

11. Management Rep, Person who fills out an