

Name: _____

Date: _____

Definitions from Psych NUR 172-Schizophrenia

Across

- 2. imitation of the movements and gestures of someone an individual is observing
- 9. a type of extrapyramidal side effect of antipsychotic medication; shuffling gait, masklike facies, muscle stiffness (continuous) or cogwheeling rigidity
- 10. a lack of any real meaning or substance in what the client says

Down

- 1. client's inaccurate interpretation that general events are personally directed to him or her, such as hearing a speech on the news and believing the message has personal meaning(three words no space inbetween words)

- 3. antipsychotic medications

- 4. false sensory perceptions or perceptual experiences that do not really exist

- 5. intense need to move about; characterized by restless movement, pacing, inability to remain still, and the client's report of inner restlessness

- 6. a fixed, false belief not based in reality

- 7. flow of unconnected words that convey no meaning to the listener(Two words no space between words)

- 8. What is tool used to to screen for symptoms of movement disorders (side effects of neuroleptic medications)?