

Dental Assisting ch 18-20

Across

4. a matrix produced by some bacteria from their cell walls
5. community of microorganisms that accumulates on surfaces in moist areas
8. foot-controlled or pedal device that is used to operate and control handpieces
12. official government agency rule that must be followed
15. microorganisms that are capable of causing disease
20. water flows fastest in the middle and slower on the edges of tubing
21. infectious, sharp, or hazardous waste
23. reclined in chair with nose and knees at the same level
24. reclined in chair with head lower than feet

25. specified room or area where diagnosis, treatment, financial info, ect are discussed concerning the patient
26. harmful to humans and the environment

27. consists of handpieces, air/water syringes, saliva ejector, and other numerous options

Down

1. seated with chair back at a 90 degree angle. Positioned for patient entry and release
2. condition in which a person is at risk for a disease due to a weakened immune system
3. OSHA regulations
6. to hold onto a surface
7. MSDS; written document about a chemical and how to contact its manufacturer

9. regulated waste; infectious or sharp
10. CFU's' unit of measure for #'s of viable bacteria per milliliter
11. clinical or control area where dental treatment is performed
13. regulated waste that has been in contact with blood or other bodily fluids
14. instruments that aid the dentist in tooth prep and the removal of dental decay
16. official public or private agency statement of the best way to comply with a regulation
17. official government agency statement of the regulations governing a specific issue
18. mechanical combination of dental materials
19. center for all clinical and treatment activities; designed for comfort
22. adherence to official standards