

Dental Spanish Terminology

Across

- 1. After the dentist exam, a cavity is found. What is the proper translation you must use for cavity when informing the patient?
- 3. After an assesment you come to the conculsion that the patient has gingivitis? what is the proper traslation for gingivitis?
- 9. When asking questions to your patient you will most like use the word(s) Do You Have? eg. do you have pain, do you have allergies, do you have a bridge. What is the proper translations for Do You Have?
- 14. You need your patient to bite down so you tell them to _____?
- 15. when working on the patient you need them to turn right. You then tell the patient?
- 16. The patient needs to get a crown. What is the proper translation for crown?

- 17. To make sure the patient is not feeling any pain through the treatment you will as them if they have any pain. What is the proper translation for pain?
 - 18. You want to tell the patient to brush their teeth. what is the proper tranlation for Brush?
 - 19. You belive that patient has A Bridge and want to confirm this with the patient. What is the proper translation for A Bridge?
 - 20. As part of the treanmet plan, you explain how plaque needs to be removed to improve oral health? What is the proper translation for plaque?
- Down
- 2. You want to ask the patient something about there teeth. What is the proper translation for teeth?
 - 4. You need the patient to gargle so you tell them to?
 - 5. What is the porper translationtion for goodbye?

- 6. You want to inform the patient that the disease is causing inflamation. What is the proper translation for inflammation?
- 7. Do to disease the patient needs to get and extration done. What is the proper traslation for Extraction?
- 8. After a rinse or thoughtout treament you need your patient to spit. In spanish you must tell them to _____?
- 10. When doing an injection you will need your patient to open there mouth. What is the proper translation to open your mouth?
- 11. You some how hurt your patient and want to say Im sorry, what do you say?
- 12. You need the patient to rinse before treatment as part of the preprocedural rinse. You tell the patient to _____?
- 13. when working on the patient you need them to turn left. You then tell them to _____?