

Name: _____

Date: _____

Depression, FDR and New Deal - Quick test

Across

4. FERA was criticised as an agency for not being diverse in its employment. 30% of black people were still relying on charity by 1935

5. Not quite the 'HULK' but an agency set up to help people with their mortgages, therefore less likely to become homeless

7. Named after a southeastern state of America, set up to help one of the most depressed regions.

11. FDR is on FIRE!!!!.....not literally

12. This agency was accused of being racist and sexist, white men were given priority for employment

13. Scaring away pigeons and amateur actors can find work under FDR's new government, but not everyone was a fan....

14. Blue Eagle logo was a popular advert for this agency. Helped America's industry recover

16. FDR was said to have 'carried' America "out of the gloom of Depression and into the light". But what about his party?

17. The agency set up that spent US$3.3 billion on large-scale public works

18. FDR government certainly did this more than Hoover. Government inter_____ aimed to help the people

19. Good job Hoover wasn't at the bottom of this, he would have been swept away in 1932....

Down

1. Not much 'interest' given here by farmers.....still, 20% were helped out by this Administration

2. Not all Acts of the Alphabet Agency lasted under the New Deal, what legal institution opposed the government?

3. Part of the New Deal, Roosevelt aimed to assist in the removal of poverty. This is an example of what 'R'

6. Spent US$500 million to help thousands of Americans who lived in poverty due to the DEpression

8. Another 'R' - boost the economy to reduce the high unemployment rate

9. Franklin D. Roosevelt introduced this to help America's economy recover and 'get out' of the Depression.

10. Final 'R' - funds provided so that the old, sick and disabled were cared for with welfare provisions

15. "Oink, Oink!" The Act that would help farmers begin to recover. In other words, farmers would be paid more by the government to produce less