

Name: _____

Date: _____

Destiny Mathes Lymphatic Medical Terminology

Across

2. A substance capable of causing cancer in living tissue

4. The branch of science concerned with the nature, effects, and detection of poisons

9. Lying between the hemal arches or hemal spine

11. Unseen blood in urine

13. conditions or practices conducive to maintaining health and preventing disease, especially through cleanliness

14. Dryness of the pharynx

15. Widespread occurrence of infectious disease in a community

Down

1. the differentiation of cells into specialized tissues and organs during growth

3. a device or drug serving to prevent pregnancy

5. The rupture or destruction of red blood cells

6. The treatment of disease by the use of chemical substances

7. Blood poisoning

8. a temporary protrusion of the surface of an amoeboid cell for movement and feeding

10. a benign tumor formed from glandular structures in epithelial tissue

12. a large triangular muscle covering the shoulder joint and serving to abduct and flex and extend and rotate the arm