

Name: _____

Date: _____

Deutsch Article Social Mobilization & Political Development

Across

- 6. Radical peasant political party in Norwegian politics in 1900.
- 9. In developing countries today however the increasingly ineffective and unpopular traditional authorities cannot be replaced successfully by their historic successors in the _____ world.
- 11. can be measured as a percentage of the population above certain ages; or as the ability to recognize words or read or write.
- 12. name given to an overall process of change, which happens to substantial parts of the population in countries which are moving from traditional to modern ways of life.

Down

- 1. Correlations between _____ and literacy are less compelling and the discrepancies are more revealing than other indicators of social mobilization
- 2. process in which major clusters of old social, economic and psychological commitments are eroded or broken and people be- come available for new patterns of socialization and behavior
- 3. Social mobilization brings with it an expansion of the politically relevant _____ of the population
- 4. Social mobilization brings about a change in the quality of _____.
- 5. In a modern, highly developed and fully _____ country the per capita income should be above $600 gross national product per capita.

- 7. suggests an image of large numbers of people moving away from a life of local isolation, traditionalism and political apathy, and moving into a different life or broader and deeper involvement in the vast complexities of modern life, including potential and actual involvement in mass politics
- 8. Similarly _____ could be measured in terms of the population of all localities of more than 2000 or more than 5000.
- 10. _____ social mobilization causes a critical problem in the communications intake of elites.