

Name: _____

Date: _____

Deviance

Across

5. Societies practice social control to maintain this.
8. This is an example of a formal sanction,
11. Waiting in line is an example of this.
12. Living with someone before marriage could be an example of this.
16. Cannibalism and incest are examples of this.
17. Conforming because an authority figure is an example of this.
18. These are applied to get one to obey norms
19. These are enforced at the state or federal level.

20. Who said that criminals often have long arms and excessive cheekbones?

21. Criticism and fines are examples of these.

22. This term refers to a person who has been labeled as deviant by society.

Down

1. These can be a smile or praise
2. First time offender of speeding and receiving a ticket is consider to be this.
3. He believed impulses are directed either inward or outward.
4. This theory states that criminal behavior is learned through who one associates with.

6. This theory centers around morality.

7. These can be a look of disgust or a negative statement.

9. This says that deviance happens when attachment to social bonds are weakened.

10. This theory says society either provides or fails to provide the means for people to reach their goals.

13. This theory says that those in power establish the laws.

14. These govern our lives by providing guidelines on how to behave and interact with others.

15. This type of social control occurs because you feel it is the right thing to do.