

Name: _____

Date: _____

Deviance

Across

5. rewards for good behaviour
6. An example of an informal, negative sanction
7. When a person accepts the label of "deviant" and continues with this behaviour
8. Theory that says we incorporate the way others see us into our self-identity
9. When a group arrives at a decision that many believe to be unwise, but go along with it
10. The process of changing or maintaining behaviour to comply with social norms

11. An initial act that breaks the norms of a group

Down

1. Deviance is learned by associating with people who are deviant, according to which theory?
2. People are more likely to conform to a person or group that is
3. According to this theory, people who have less are more likely to be deviant
4. punishment for rule breakers