

Different Types Of Energy

Across

2. the process by which wind is used to generate electricity

4. radiant energy controlled by the sun

8. the point where something begins

9. radiation matter capable to perform work

11. energy released during nuclear fission or fusion when used to generate electricity

13. the results of affected tides

14. heat energy generated and stored in the earth

15. a natural substance that creates an energy surface

Down

1. natural resources that creates electricity

3. ability to maintain a certain level

5. a fuel derived directly from living matter

6. can not be renewed
7. process of disturbing something

10. facts and statistics collected together for reference or analysis

12. can be renewed