

Name: _____

Disability Awareness

- |   |                                |
|---|--------------------------------|
| 1. Characteristics that vary across a wide spectrum. Displays difficulties with language or communication, social skills, behavior, and sensory difficulties. | A. Memory Loss                 |
| 2. Communication includes sign language, lip reading, or both.  | B. Speech / Language Disorders |
| 3. Significant limitations in learning, thinking, solving problems, making sense of the world, and developing everyday life skills.                           | C. Chronic Illnesses           |
| 4. May exhibit a variety of difficulties, including problems with reading, spoken language, writing, or reasoning ability.                                    | D. Vision Loss / Blindness     |
| 5. The ability to locate valuables, recognize family / friends, or be in control of feelings decreases.   | E. ADHD                        |
| 6. The inability to use legs, arms, or the body trunk effectively because of paralysis, stiffness, pain, or other impairments.                                | F. Autism                      |
| 7. Affects one's ability to speak words.  | G. Intellectual Disabilities   |
| 8. Range from blurred or fuzzy vision to total blindness.   | H. Learning Disabilities       |
| 9. Varied illnesses such as cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, epilepsy, heart disease, and chronic fatigue syndrome.  | I. Deaf / Hard of Hearing      |
| 10. A medical condition that affects how well someone can sit still, focus, and pay attention.  | J. Physical Disabilities       |