

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Disorders of the Endocrine System

Across

10. also known as myxedema, swelling related to mucoid build up

16. abnormally large thyroid gland, it develops either because the whole gland is swollen or the gland has multiple growths or nodules on it

19. also known as tetany, calcium remains in the bones and is unable to enter the bloodstream

Down

1. also called complete androgen insensitivity syndrome, this is a genetic disorder that makes XY fetuses unresponsive to androgens (male hormones)

2. it is also known as Cushing's Syndrome

3. hypofunction of the adrenal cortex

4. also known as cretinism, a congenital condition as a child

5. a type of depression that's related to changes in seasons (SAD)

6. also known as pituitary dwarfism, usually diagnosed during childhood with radiographic examination

7. a rare condition that causes abnormal growth in children

8. in an adult is know as acromegaly, rare disorder that develops slowly, with a wide variety of symptoms

9. endocrine disorder characterized by an excess of androgens produced by the ovaries

11. a rare condition characterized by a combination of symptoms due to inadequate parathyroid hormone production

12. an endocrine disorder that involves one or both of your adrenal glands creating too much of a hormone called aldosterone

13. also known as Hyposecretion Antidiuretic Hormone

14. it is also known as Grave's disease, production of too much thyroid hormone

15. a defining characteristic of diabetes—when the blood glucose level is too high because the body isn't properly using or doesn't make the hormone insulin.

17. also known as hirsutism, in women is characterized by excessive coarse hair appearing in a male-type pattern

18. a condition when your blood glucose level drop too low