

Do we Survive Death? How can we Help?

Across

5. A state of heightened attention, usually to danger signals.
7. The persistence of spirit, soul, or personality after death.
9. A Hindu god who is incarnated in human form.
10. The return of the spirit or soul in another physical form after death.
11. A name given to God in the Old Testament.
13. A person with the reputed power of receiving messages from the dead.

14. Perceiving one's own body as though from above, a facet out of the out-of-the-body experience.

15. Concept that death and possible afterlife might not be the same for all living creatures under all conditions.

Down

1. A person with the reputed power to communicate with the past lives of oneself or others.
2. Images, perceptions, and feelings that are recalled by some people after a life-threatening episode.

3. A major factor in burnout for human service care providers.

4. An emotional exhaustion as a result of prolonged job stress.

6. Often include vivid imagery and a sense of secrets and wonders revealed and accompanied by a joyous harmony.

8. Substances the brain produces that affect mood and awareness.

12. Thoughts, feelings, and actions that are motivated by the intention to help others.