

Name: _____

Date: _____

Dog Breeds

Across

- 5. Have both a rough and smooth variety and may be red with white markings or white with red markings
- 9. Come in the following three varieties depending on their coat
- 13. Grow a short, thick, water-repellent coat which protects them from brush and insulates them from cold temperatures
- 14. Herding dogs control the movement of?
- 17. Are bred for their natural instinct in water and woods, which allow them to be great hunting and field activity dogs
- 19. Grow a water-resistant double coat which can be black, brown, gray or white with black markings
- 20. Grow straight, short hair which can be solid black, yellow or chocolate in color

21. Enjoy working with their owners in _____ settings

23. Are bred to do work

24. Are not able to bark

25. Grow a long silky coat which is _____, with areas of black, rust and white

Down

- 1. Have a background of being guard dogs for flock animals, such as sheep
- 2. Grow a double coat consisting of a hard, wiry outer coat and a dense, soft under coat which can be black or salt and pepper colored
- 3. Are known for a clown-like personality popular with families
- 4. Grow a short, shiny and hard coat which can be black, red, blue or fawn
- 6. Are traditionally known as “gray ghosts” for their unique coat color

7. Are known for their “cold nose”, meaning they have the ability to follow old trails

8. A herding breed that is born white and gains color within a few weeks

10. Are fearless and aggressive in field activities

11. Were traditionally known as excellent hunters

12. Are excellent livestock herders

15. Great Danes have a solid white base color with irregular black patches

16. Can be various shades of cream to gold in color

18. Are one of the oldest known breeds, pre-dating written history

22. Are bred with a good sense of smell, high stamina and hunting performance