

Domain 5 Vocabulary

Across

5. the median of the data values less than the median

8. a number that is much less or much greater than the other numbers

10. most occurring number

11. a question or set of questions used to gather data

12. a combination of two or more events

13. a sample that is similar to the population

Down

1. the difference between the third quartile and the first quartile

2. the desired outcome of a probability experiment

3. pieces of information

4. the values that divide the data into four quarters

6. the chance of an event happening

7. the group of interest in a survey

9. the difference between the greatest value and the least value