

Drama/Lit Terms

Across

- 3. A play on word's meanings
- 9. When two characters have the exact opposite qualities
- 11. When an actor directly addresses the audience, but is not heard by other characters
- 13. The genre of plays that results in a sad/unfortunate ending
- 14. Two words that do not go together, but are used together
- 15. Type of irony when there is difference between what is expected and what actually happens

- 16. What a tragic hero has that results in their downfall

Down

- 1. A speech by an actor in front of other actors
- 2. A metaphor that extends over multiple lines
- 4. Type of irony when what is said is the opposite of what is meant
- 5. A speech when an actor is alone on stage sharing their thoughts/feelings
- 6. A group of actors that convey information about the play
- 7. The person who has a tragic flaw
- 8. A reference to a historical or literary figure, event, or object
- 10. A statement that contradicts itself, but may be true
- 12. Type of irony when the audience knows something that characters do not