

Drama

Across

- 2. A still picture on stage
- 5. Acting without sound; using the body to tell a story
- 6. Looking back and paying attention to what could be improved
- 9. Money paid to the writer by a producer when the writer's play is performed
- 11. Conversation between two or more people
- 12. Telling a story directly to the audience without acting it out
- 13. The rules of the stage

Down

- 1. An activity that involves actors and an audience in a situation where the action is live, rather than recorded
- 3. Noticing the good points about a presentation
- 4. A person who assists people in their recovery
- 7. The background sound for a movie or play
- 8. Draw attention away from what is important

- 10. Standing in front of another actor so that the audience cannot see that performer

