

Name: _____

Drama Glossary

Across

- 5. present to an audience
- 6. portrayal of real-life or made-up events through acting as entertainment or knowledge
- 8. the sequence of a drama performance as written in the script
- 9. a person in a drama performance, identified by their appearance and personality
- 10. the main events of a drama performance, separated by scenes
- 11. bring something into being or existence; produce or evolve from one's own thought or imagination

Down

- 1. the way in which a character looks - description of the physical appearance
- 2. the way in which a character looks - describing the physical appearance
- 3. the way in which a character acts - describing the emotional characteristics or personality traits
- 4. bring out the meaning of through one's own interpretation
- 7. the person who performs a character role in a performance