

Name: _____

Date: _____

Drama Terms

Across

6. Telling a story or showing a character by body movement. Usually without words

8. An actor on stage speaking at length on their own

9. Excitement or anticipation leading up to an event

10. The words of the play and stage directions written down

11. A style or category of art, music, literature or drama

12. How loud your voice is

Down

1. A character or voice that describes the action or gives more of the story

2. The message you give by the way you stand and move.

3. Stopping the action in order to get a still image (6,5)

4. When more than one character speak to each other

5. Taking on a role which is not scripted and acting as if you are in a make- believe situation

7. How high or how low your voice is