

Name: _____

Date: _____

Drama Vocab

Across

2. a speech in which an actor usually alone speaks his or her thoughts aloud

5. one dimensional characters who embody a single trait

8. a bit of humor injected into a serious play to relieve tension

12. a character speaking alone on stage

15. a subdivision of an act or play

17. something the audience knows that a character on stage does not

18. sides of a stage

19. the main idea or message within the play

20. dishes, furniture, and items used by a actor

22. words spoken by the actors during a play

23. play in which a good man dies or meets a terrible end

Down

1. people who watch the play

3. all actors and actresses in a play

4. how a conflict is solved

6. the main character around whom the action revolves

7. moves an actor makes

9. the problem in a play

10. a funny or silly play

11. the point of highest dramatic tension in a play

13. the major divisions of a play

14. person who writes a play

16. words an actor says

21. copies of the play the actors use